ACES Adverse Childhood Experiences

Section 390 of the New York Social Services Law and the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act require training for individuals in certain roles in child care programs. This requirement is included in OCFS's child day care regulations and applies to all OCFS licensed or registered child day care programs in all of New York State.

TRAINING FOR NEW YORK STATE
EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROVIDERS

THE BASICS

Fulfill your New York State training requirements in Adverse Childhood Experiences with the seminar ACES - The Basics offered by the Adoptive and Foster Family Coalition of New York. We can customize your professional development experience to fit your needs, your level of knowledge, and your time availability.

ACES - THE BASICS will cover:

- ✓ What are Adverse Childhood Experiences?
- ✓ How do ACEs impact on early childhood development?
- ✓ How can we prevent adversity, trauma and toxic stress in early childhood?
- ✓ What we can do to intervene and help children heal from Adverse Childhood Experiences?
